

Sounds of Color

A Tribute to the art of Carlo and Paolo
Montarsolo.
Brothers in Art and Soul

Tuesday
May 22, 2018
6:30 pm

Italian Cultural Institute
601 Van Ness Ave. Suite F
(Opera Plaza)
San Francisco

ASSOCIAZIONE

Montarsolo

Carlo and Paolo Montarsolo were not only brothers, but also artists – one a painter, the other an opera singer –, whose lives were themselves works of art. Throughout their careers, they supported and encouraged each others' art, as they traveled the world, often performing and exhibiting in the same places. This deep tie gave Federico, Carlo's son, the idea of creating an event to commemorate their extraordinary lives in art.

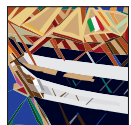

Carlo Montarsolo (1922-2005) was one of the most prolific painters of naturalistic-abstract art in the post-war Italy. He was also an enthusiastic art lecturer, often invited to speak by Italian Cultural Institutes around the world.

Paolo Montarsolo (1925-2006) was one of Italy's greatest opera singers, beloved for his basso buffo roles. He sang with many of the world's leading conductors and appeared frequently at the San Francisco Opera, where he also taught scores of young singers through the Merola Opera Program.

ASSOCIAZIONE

Montarsolo

Based on an idea by Federico Romanelli Montarsolo
Produced by Associazione Montarsolo
Writer: Alessandra Valente
Narrator: Steve Siegelman

The event is organized by the Italian Cultural Institute in collaboration with the Consulate General of Italy and the Merola Opera Program of San Francisco.

With the patronage of Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Italian Ministry of Cultural Heritage and Activities and Tourism

Supported by Italia Cargo and Tenuta di Tavignano

Info@carlomontarsolo.it

